

Oboist Henry A. Tervo has a Masters of Music from New England Conservatory and has performed with the Portland Symphony Orchestra, Emmanuel Music, Boston Opera, Boston Ballet, Colonial Theater, North Shore Music Theater, Gardner Museum Concerts, the Worcester Symphony and the R.I. Philharmonic. He has taught oboe, clarinet and saxophone and as an ensemble coach in several schools, including the Powers Music School, Gordon College, Camp Encore-Coda and Indian Hill Music School. His work utilizes his extensive teaching and performing experience to help students develop musically, intellectually and personally.